(1) in subparagraph b(4)(c) by adding the following new Note at the end thereof:

"[Note: If the absence was with intent to abandon the accused's guard, watch, or duty section, add the following element]"; and

(2) in paragraph f(4) by enclosing "with intent to abandon the same" in parentheses.

b. The title and content of paragraph 101 is deleted, and the word "RESERVED" substituted therefor.

c. Paragraph 105 is amended in subparagraph d to read as follows:

"Lesser included offenses. Article 80 -- attempts."

(3) amending redesignated subparagraph (5) to read as follows:

"(5) A suspension may be vacated by any nonjudicial punishment authority or commander competent to impose upon the servicemember concerned punishment of the kind and amount involved in the vacation of suspension. Vacation of suspension may be based only on a violation of the conditions of suspension which occurs within the period of suspension. Before a suspension may be vacated, the servicemember ordinarily shall be notified and given an opportunity to respond. Although a hearing is not required to vacate a suspension, if the punishment is of the kind set forth in Article 15(e)(1)-(7), the servicemember should, unless impracticable, be given an opportunity to appear before the officer authorized to vacate suspension of the punishment to present any matters in defense, extenuation, or mitigation of the violation on which the vacation action is to be based. Vacation of a suspended nonjudicial punishment is not itself nonjudicial punishment, and additional action to impose nonjudicial punishment for a violation of a punitive article of the code upon which the vacation action is based is not precluded thereby."

Nothing in these amendments shall be construed to invalidate any nonjudicial punishment proceeding, restraint, investigation, referral of charges, trial in which arraignment occurred, or other action begun prior to April 1, 1990, and any such restrain, investigation, referral of charges, trail, or other action may proceed in the same manner and with the same effect as if these amendments had not been prescribed.
